THE QUARRY RESTAURANT PATHWAYS, 400m
6 One Fine Filly	Came together heavily with a runner yielding ground in the first turn, losing considerable ground. A post-race veterinary examination revealed a near side hind pad abrasion and is stood down for 10 days.
7 Stadiums	A post-race swab was obtained. Stewards had concerns with the greyhound's actions in the home straight, where on the lateral footage, the greyhound appeared to be looking outward towards another runner. Stewards spoke to trainer Mr Stephen Davies and after reviewing the home straight head-on race footage, stewards could not definitively identify the greyhound's actions in the home straight and have given the greyhound the benefit of the doubt regarding any breach of the rules. Stewards did advise Mr Davies that a warning would be placed on the greyhound and that a similar performance may warrant further action from stewards.
